

Doris Day- Contemporary Inductee

Doris Day, a business woman, inspirational speaker and tireless volunteer. When she lost her mother to cancer, two causes were uppermost in her mind, equal pay for women and breast cancer treatment. As Legislative and Public Policy Chairman and committee member of FFWC, she fought for equal pay for women and better treatment for breast cancer patients.

2010 Hall of Fame Inductees

Doris Day-
Contemporary Inductee

Karen Lauer -
Community Service Inductee

Martha Miller-
Business Woman Inductee

Karen Lauer- Community Service Inductee

Karen Lauer, for many years an artist and illustrator in the private and military sectors, was President of Democratic Women's Club leading it to become the largest in the Panhandle and to the establishment of a permanent Democratic Headquarters in Okaloosa County. As a volunteer for Shelter House, she works to increase awareness and understanding of domestic violence.

Martha Miller - Business Woman
Inductee

Martha Miller, City President for Coastal Bank and Trust, worked her way from teller to various leadership roles including Branch Management, Consumer and Commercial Lending, Human Resources, Training, Marketing and Sales. She has served as President of the Niceville Chamber, President of the Heritage Museum Board, United Way volunteer, American Cancer Society Chairperson, and a member of the Niceville Planning Commission. She was awarded Leader of the Year multiple times within her own company.

2010 Hall of Fame
Inductees

Doris Day-
Contemporary Inductee

Karen Lauer -
Community Service
Inductee

Martha Miller-
Business Woman Inductee

CONGRATULATIONS