

Donna Miller - Contemporary Inductee

Donna Miller, a past Okaloosa County Assistant County Administrator and volunteer, is recognized by her colleagues, peers, and subordinates for exceptional leadership and mentoring skills. Miller retired after 29 years of public service in several Florida counties, including the last 15 years as Okaloosa County Assistant County Administrator. She served tirelessly as a mentor, teacher and problem solver to many, within and outside her chain of command. She continues to expand her volunteerism post retirement through a variety of community projects and services.

Business Woman Inductee

Eddie Mae Owens - Business Woman Inductee

Eddie Mae Owens, one of the first female CEO's in a county financial institution, used her high level positions to help others, particularly other women. She has served as a volunteer for the United Way, Okaloosa Walton Community College, Okaloosa County Commission on the Status of Women, Chamber of Commerce, ABWA, Okaloosa Guidance Clinic, League of Women Voters, a mentor for the school system, First Baptist Church and other charitable and civic organizations. She was an example to others to give back and led the way for women who wanted a career.
